Tallest Sunflower Competition – Free Seeds

In the new 'Outdoors Explorers' magazine available from Jan 2011 from Reflections on Learning, is a competition to grow the tallest sunflower in the UK. Customers who purchase any item will get sent a FREE pack of seeds courtesy of Reflections on Learning and Suttons seeds (the UK's biggest seed producer).

"We are hoping for a great response to this competition" said Samuel Robinson (Reflections Brand Manager) and maybe we can set a new UK or world record for the tallest sunflower (presently 7.76 metres!).

Growing vegetables and plants is great fun and a core curriculum activity for every primary and pre-school child. Planting, watering and growing plants from seeds is a very important part of seeing a life process from start to finish and sunflowers are spectacular - growing from a tiny seed into a plant with giant seed head far taller than human being. At Reflections on Learning we have been sending our Outdoors Explorers magazine for 6 years and seen the expansion in the interest of all outdoor products including wet weather clothing, sensory products, spotters guides, pond dipping equipment, games, sand play equipment and of course gardening tools and seeds.

The Outdoor Explorers magazine is being mailed to every Reflections on Learning customer free of charge in January and is available to anyone who calls 01732 225850 from the start of January 2011.

Fingers crossed for a great growing year and maybe a new world record!
